MEMORANDUM FOR POTENTIAL APPLICANT

FROM: 186 AS/CC

SUBJECT: Application Procedures for C-130 Pilot Training

1. Thank you for expressing interest in flying C-130s for the Montana Air National Guard! The 120th Airlift Wing attempts to provide an equal opportunity for all qualified individuals desiring to become a pilot in our organization.

2. Pilot application procedures need to be followed very closely to ensure a complete package is available to the selection board. Please note that the process is lengthy. Any deviations could prevent meeting established time line and result in being eliminated from further consideration. The deadline for receipt of pilot applications is 15 February 2015.

3. The initial application must include the following items in a 6 part folder in the designated sections:
(other documents will be discarded before the selection board review process):

Section 1: Full length color photo -- list height and weight on back

Section 2: Personal letter of introduction with goals and resume (colleges attended, major, GPA, military experience and any flight experience must be included)

Section 3: College transcript – a copy is acceptable
Documentation of military experience - if applicable

Section 4: Documentation of flight experience to include licenses and/or last page of log book entries

Section 5: Air Force Officer Qualification Test (AFOQT) scores and TBAS Scores
Both tests given at Malmstrom Air Force Base – 406-731-4349

Section 6: Letters of recommendation – At least two

4. The minimum prerequisites for application are a bachelor's degree, completed by summer 2015, and the applicant must be 28 years old or younger.

5. Personal interviews will be scheduled ONLY for those applicants selected by the screening board. It is our preference that your application be the best it can be, and if selected for an interview, use that opportunity to express your desires, and motivations to be a member of the Montana Air National Guard.

The POC for this board is Capt Nate Young, call (406)791-0829 or email nathan.young.2@ang.af.mil with any questions.

Please mail your application in the format above to: 120 AW UPT Board
Attn: Captain Nate Young
